HUNT BEGUN HERE FOR WOMEN ANARCHISTS

FLYNN GETS INSIDE TIPS FROM N. Y. BOMB EXPERTS; PLANS ROUND-UP OF REDS

Information About Suspects Furnished By Tunney and Ex-Capt. Jones.

HUNT IN OTHER CITIES.

Dangerous Radical Traced From Seattle and Now Sought Here.

After a series of all night conferences with detectives, special agents and various individuals who know the anarchists of the United States and their abiding places in this city, William J. Flynn, appointed chief of the investigating force of the Department of Justice for the purpose of hunting down the perpetrators of the recent bomb outrages, left his home in Washington Heights in a hurry at 7 o'clock this morning. He gave no intimation as to where he was going.

Within the last twenty-four hours Chief Flynn, who as chief of the Federal Secret Service operations in this city and as deputy police commissioner gained an intimate inside knowledge of the men and methods adapted to getting to the bottom of various sorts of crime, has been in touch with former Captain William Jones of the detective bureau and with Inspector Tunney, former head of the bomb squad, who is on sick leave, and has obtained from them the names of men in and out of the police department who have been effective against bomb setters in the past.

DANGEROUS RADICAL TRACED FROM SEATTLE TO NEW YORK. Former Capt. Jones undertook, under Commissioner Waldo, in 1912, to find the group who set off 167 bombs in the city in the course of labor disputes. He captured the leaders of the plot, ten or twelve in number, and after they had made full confessions they were sent to prison.

The leaders of this band were closely associated with the Brechtel and the Ferrer group of Anarchists now under suspicion. Of the four leaders sent to prison one is still in confinement, the movements and associations of two have been checked

ALL COMBAT UNITS IN NATIONAL ARMY HAVE LEFT FRANCE

March Also Says That All Archangel Troops Will Leave for Home in Two Weeks.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Houseward movement of National Guard and National Army combat units from France is complete. Chief of Staff March announced to-day, all units having embarked for this country.

Gen. March's statement on the National Guard and National Army bear on the units recognized as such—men forming the combat units. Thousands of National Army and National Guard men are still in France as replacements in regular army divisions or who went overseas with or to replace quartermaster, medical, service and other units in the A. E. F. service of supply. Most of these men, Gen. March has previously stated, will be out in June and July.

The movement of regulars has been begun, he stated. The sixth division began its sailing this week. Gen. March also announced that all of the original Archangel Expedition will have sailed for home within two weeks. Companies E, G, I, M and the Machine Gun Company of the 339th Infantry are now enroute for Brest, having sailed from Archangel June 3.

The only American troops to be left of the Archangel forces, Gen. March added, will be the Railroad Engineers sent there this spring for special railroad work. He was unable to ascertain the exact kind of work, but was certain it was neither American nor German. No fuse, he said, was attached.

The army, he said, was 65 per cent. demobilized June 5. In France there remain 694,745 officers and men. Brest and New York continue to be the leading embarking and debarking points respectively. Of returning

STEAMER BURNING IN MID-OCEAN SAVED BY U. S. TRANSPORT

Firemen Killed on the Beechleaf Before the West Haven Arrives.

When the United States transport West Haven arrives in port to-night with the British cargo steamer Beechleaf in tow, officers and men of both vessels will have thrilling stories to tell of how the Beechleaf caught fire several hundred miles this side of Ponta Delgada in the Azores, and how the transport went to her assistance after one of the Beechleaf firemen had lost his life and the third engineer was badly burned.

The Beechleaf, a newly built steamship of 3,448 tons gross, owned in Liverpool, left Baton Rouge, La., on May 23 with a general cargo for Lough Swilly. The West Haven sailed from Bordeaux on May 17 and from Ponta Delgada on May 23.

"Several hundred miles west of Ponta Delgada," the commander of the West Haven said to-day in a wireless message to the United States Naval District Supervisor of the Port of New York, "we went to the rescue of the Beechleaf in response to wireless distress signals saying that that ship was on fire."

"The Beechleaf was badly damaged. Her engines and steam steering gear are out of commission and she is steering badly by hand. West Haven with Beechleaf in tow will arrive off Ambrose Lightship at 8 o'clock to-night. Send tug."

The message added that the West Haven has on board 2,300 tons of captured German arms, ordnance, aviation and artillery supplies, 370 tons of steel rails "and explosives." A similar message was received to-day from the West Haven by Simpson, Spence & Young, steamship agents at No. 11 Broadway, who represent the owners of the Beechwood in this country.

EXPLOSIVE SHELL FOUND IN PHILADELPHIA SUBWAY

No Fuse Attached and Experts Are Unable to Determine Its Origin.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—A three and half inch shell of foreign make, highly charged with a powerful explosive, was found early to-day in a subway entrance in the heart of the shopping district. Examination of the shell was made by experts under supervision of Lieut. Col. Clay, commandant at the Frankford arsenal. He said he had been unable to ascertain the exact kind of shell, but was certain it was neither American nor German. No fuse, he said, was attached.

FORBIDS TOLEDO PICKETING.

Willis-Overland Strikers Hit by Court Order.

TOLEDO, June 7.—Federal Judge John M. Killits to-day said he would issue a restraining order forbidding former workers from interfering with Willis-Overland operations.

He refused to decide on an application for an injunction ordering the opening of the plant.

The restraining order will forbid idle men from interfering with those who wish to work.

DANIELS DENIES OFFER.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—"No such offer has been made," Secretary of the Navy Daniels said to-day, when he saw a published report that he planned to resign to accept an offer to be President of the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical College.

Daniels refused to go into details.

EXTRA 30,000 SEE CORN TASSEL WIN SUBURBAN HANDICAP

R. T. Wilson Captures Classic Belmont Event—Sweep On Second, Boniface Third.

Corn Tassel, owned by R. T. Wilson Jr., won the Suburban handicap at Belmont this afternoon. Sweep On, owned by W. R. Coe, coupled as an entry with Over There was second. Boniface was third. The distance, one and a quarter miles, was covered in 2:02 1-5.

Eight horses faced the starter in the big turf classic. Vindex, Star Class and Princess were scratched. The winner was ridden by Buddy Ensor. Corn Tassel closed at 16 to 5 in the betting.

Corn Tassel was heavily backed just as the horses came out on the track. The winner and Sweep On came down the stretch on even terms until twenty-five yards from the finish line, when Ensor got Corn Tassel's head in front, crossing the finish line winner by a short head.

"Thirty thousand witnessed the running of the classic race. Sweep On, ridden by Mcatee was even money a place and Boniface as good as 5 to 2 to show.

WOMAN'S SKELETON FOUND IN HACKENSACK SWAMP

Body Well Clothed in Winter Garments When Discovered by Boys Near Trolley Line.

The skeleton of a woman, clothed in good winter garments, was found to-day by three boys who were hunting magnolias in the cedar swamp of Hackensack Meadows, about 500 yards from the trolley line that runs from Hoboken to Paterson.

There was no mark of violence and the body was dressed in black excepting the hat, which was brown velvet. The police are puzzled as to whether the case is one of suicide, murder, or accident.

The police of nearby cities have been asked to scan their lists of missing persons. The body was that of a woman about five feet seven inches tall and she was brunette. No further description is obtainable.

COURT MARTIAL IN PARIS SENTENCES SPY TO DEATH

Austrian Captain Accused of Giving Information About Bombardment of City.

PARIS, June 7.—Capt. Funck of the Austrian Army has been tried and sentenced to death as a spy by a secret court-martial here.

It appears that Capt. Funck was in Paris before the war began and remained in the city throughout the hostilities. It was alleged at the trial that he made the enemy acquainted with information regarding air raids and long distance shelling of Paris.

The specific accusation upon which he was convicted was "communicating information concerning the bombardments by Gothas and Berthas to the German Military Attache at Madrid."

BRIDGE OF SHIPS TO MARK AIR PATH ACROSS ATLANTIC

Commander Towers Predicts Chain With Meteorological Stations in Five Years.

(Copyright, 1919, by the United Press.) LONDON, June 7.—Commander J. H. Towers of the NC-3 and "Admiral" of the fleet of three American seaplanes which attempted a transatlantic flight, to-day predicted that a permanent bridge of boats would connect America and Europe within five years. These boats, he said, would serve as an aid both to aerial and aquatic navigation.

"A chain of lightships, each a floating meteorological station, will within five years mark the air routes to Europe," Towers declared.

"These craft should be maintained internationally, perhaps by the League of Nations. The expense would be heavy, but not prohibitive. Subsequent outlay would not compare with the benefits derived."

"I would suggest a lightship every 300 miles. They could keep in touch with aerial craft, steamers and sailing vessels by wireless. Supply ships could provision them periodically. The first chain probably would be established by way of the Azores, which is the easiest air route, but I believe another from Newfoundland to Ireland would be practicable. They would place transatlantic flying on a substantial basis."

"Meteorological information is the most important phase of flying across the Atlantic. The NC-3 failed through lack of this. We unexpectedly encountered storms in an area in which clear weather had been predicted."

"Each of the lightships could be manned by a small crew and a radio operator. The meteorologist need not be extremely expert. The ships could also assist surface craft in distress."

BRITISH DIRIGIBLE R-34 TUNING UP FOR FLIGHT

Admiralty Uncertain as to Date of Attempt, but It May Be This Month.

LONDON, June 7.—The British dirigible R-34 is tuning up near the Firth of Forth for its flight to Atlantic City, N. J. The Admiralty is uncertain regarding the day of departure.

The R-34 will seek to fly to Newfoundland at an altitude of about 7,000 feet, which is above the lower storm-filled area usually traversed by airplanes. From Newfoundland it is planned to follow the coast to Atlantic City.

BROKER TRAPPED BY WOMAN IN ROLE OF DIVORCE RAIDER

Effie Hamilton Tells of Finding J. S. McDonald in Riverside Drive Apartment.

Miss Effie Hamilton of No. 625 Rockaway Street, Totterville, S. I., as principal witness in the divorce action of Mrs. Blanche K. McDonald against James S. McDonald of H. Content & Co., brokers, told how she did the work of a regular divorce detective in an apartment house at No. 610 Riverside Drive.

At the invitation of Mrs. McDonald, she said, she went with the plaintiff and another friend, Mrs. Agnes H. Myer, of No. 4310 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, to the apartment house. "I went along," said Miss Hamilton, "because I wanted to help Mrs. McDonald."

"And did you knock at the door and announce 'telegram'?" inquired Cornelius Hutch, counsel for Mrs. McDonald.

"I did," replied the witness. "And Mr. McDonald opened the door immediately."

"Isn't that rather unusual?" inquired the Justice. "In my experience detectives posing as messengers have always used that pretext and then sometimes they haven't been admitted. Don't you suppose Mr. McDonald might have thought it was his wife's voice?"

"Not any more," replied Attorney Hutch in response to the Court's inquiry. "Women bellhops, elevator runners and messengers have changed things a bit."

After the trio had gained entrance to the apartment they made straight for the room where a woman had been seen. When Miss Hamilton saw the correspondent in a Georgette crepe kimono and her blonde hair hanging in long braids she immediately chided her for keeping company with a married man who was also a father.

"Oh, I thought he was separated; at least he told me so," the golden-tressed co-respondent explained and then dodged into a closet, the witness said.

Justice Giegerich reserved decision.

DEMOCRATS TO PRESS LODGE FOR FACTS ON TREATY LEAK; INQUIRY TO BEGIN MONDAY

Investigation Ordered by the Senate to Take a Wide Range With Both Sides Seeking Political Advantage—Senate's Demand for Text of Treaty Cabled Wilson.

PARIS, June 7 (Associated Press).—The American delegation to the Peace Conference is apparently firm in its decision not to authorize the publication of the German Peace Treaty until it is signed, and not even to communicate the official text in its present form to the United States Senate.

PARADES TO PRECIPITATE RIOTS JULY 4, REDS PLAN

Government Departments Get Out of Lines of the Threatened Nationwide Demonstration.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Parades and similar demonstrations, designed to precipitate riots, appear to constitute the programme of "Reds" in their plans for a July 4 outbreak, according to propaganda literature and other information in the hands of Government departments here.

As a result organized labor officials as well as Government authorities are expected to take steps to discourage participation of labor men, soldiers and sailors in brawls which the "Reds" attempt to start. According to information here the agitators plan to stir up many street demonstrations with the hope that bloodshed will result.

Strikes should be fomented, especially among employees of public utilities like street railway systems, the "Reds" propaganda counsels.

D. S. C. AWARDED TO WOMAN FOR BRAVERY IN ACTION

Fred H. Meyer of New York Another Honored by War Department.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—One woman was included in the list of citations made public by the War Department to-day as the basis for awards of the Distinguished Service Cross.

Miss Janet Jeffrey, an Englishwoman, serving as an American Red Cross nurse, was cited for extraordinary bravery in action. While on duty in a hospital she was wounded by an exploding aerial bomb, but refused to leave her post. "Though suffering great pain, her devotion to the task of helping others was inspiring to her associates."

Another award was made to Fred H. Meyer, No. 223 West 144th Street, New York City.

DENOUNCES NAVY LEAGUE.

Daniels Classes Officers and Members With Anarchists.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Officials and members of the Navy League, which attacked Secretary Daniels before the United States entered the war, were denounced before the House Naval Committee to-day by Mr. Daniels, who said they were "as much enemies of the country as any anarchists."

"While I am Secretary they can never have anything to do with the Navy," said Mr. Daniels.

Battle, a Washington Secretary Examines the New Navy Control, June 5, $2.50 round trip. Mr. Meyer, No. 223 West 144th—Advt.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Administration officials believe President Wilson's reply to the Senate resolution asking for the Peace Treaty with Germany will be that it is not compatible with the public interest to furnish the text at this time.

Acting Secretary of State Polk to-day cabled to President Wilson the resolution passed by the Senate yesterday, calling upon him to submit the text of the German Treaty.

Senator Lodge to-day called a meeting of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee for next Monday to consider procedure in the investigation ordered by the Senate of how the text of the treaty reached persons in New York.

Both Senator Lodge and Senator Hitchcock, Democrat of Nebraska, author of the investigation resolution, said they had no personal plans for the inquiry, nor suggestions for witnesses and that the entire procedure would be subject to decision by the full committee.

Notwithstanding this reticence the part of the Senators it is already apparent that the investigation will take a wide range, with both political parties making efforts to gain the advantage.

It seems certain that Lodge and Borah, whose charges in connection with the treaty have brought about the investigation, will attempt to connect some one close to Wilson with the sending of the copies that have been shown in Wall Street.

Democrats on their part will belittle the efforts of Republicans to connect the Wilson Administration with "big business" and they will demand that both Lodge and Borah reveal their source of information. In his speech Lodge has insisted that his informant had no connection with Wall Street affairs, but he will be questioned sharply on the reason the informant has for concealing his identity. Lodge will be accused of nagging the President for purely political purposes.
